

Course Description

Philosophical foundations of research. Purpose of educational research. Nature of education research. Types of educational research. Evaluation research. Defining a research problem. Research objectives and hypotheses/questions. Design of research project. Literature review. Theoretical framework. Educational research methodology. Strategies for conducting field research. Qualitative research. Qualitative methods. Writing research proposals. Processing research data and information. Preparing research reports and regulations for writing a thesis.