

Course Description

Theories of curriculum evaluation. Approaches to teacher supervision and evaluation. Implications of teacher evaluation. Assessment of student achievements. Implications of learners evaluation. Experiences with supervision encounters within the classroom. Substance of classroom interactions. Monitoring teaching and learning activities. Opportunities for learning and development.