

Course Description

The mismatch theory and its consequences. Financing higher education. Concept of efficiency and equity applied in higher education. Role of central and regional government in supporting education. Financing goals and conflicts. Interaction between higher education and the economy. Individual decisions to invest in education. Government decisions to invest in education. Impact of shifting labour markets on higher education. Impact of changing student population on higher education. Academic labour markets. Effects of changing demography on demand for higher education. Institutional adaptation to changing economic needs.