

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The concept of educational leadership. Administrative models of higher education. The principal ship. Communication skills. Staff development. Decision-making. Discipline. Evaluation of curriculum and personnel. Power relations with parents and community. School culture. Managing schools with uncertain environments. Governance of public and private schools. Administrative responses to education reform. Dilemmas and opportunities faced by educational public and human service organizations.