

Brief Description

Educational Administration is the process of acquiring and allocating resources for the achievement predetermined educational of goals. Students of Educational administration essentially study educational management which is a process of designing, developing and effecting educational objectives and allocating resources to achieve the predetermined educational goals.